Randall Cotton Poll Tax Stampede Forecast

Randall County cotton farmers will participate in an upland cotton marketing quota referendum, Dec. 10, according to the Randall County ASCS office.

All farmers engaged in production of upland cotton in 1963 will be eligible to cast ballots in the referendum.

If at least two-thirds of the producers in the nation approve quotas, then quotas will be in effect for the 1964 crop. Marketing penalties will apply to any "excess" cotton produced on a farm and price supports will be at a level within the range of 65 to 90 percent of parity for farmers who comply with their farm acreage allotments.

On the other hand, if more than one-third of the growers who vote oppose the quotas, then there will be no quotas and no penalties applicable to the 1964 crop.

Price support for farmers who comply with their farm acreage allotments will be available at 50 percent of parity, according to the ASCS office here.

Allotments are not to be affected by the outcome of the balloting. They will remain in effect whether or not quotas are approved as a means of determining eligibility for available price support.

Eligible farmers having farms in the Sunnyhill and Jowell Communities will vote at Consumers Elevator at Ralph Switch.

Big Yule Gift For Students

School students in Canyon will have two full weeks off for Christmas vacation, school officials announced this week.

Canyon public schools will dismiss classes at the end of the school day Friday, December 20. Classes will resume for the students Monday morning January 6, 1964.

Vacation for West Texas State University begins at noon on Saturday, December 21, and classes will resume at the regular time, Monday, January 6, 1964.

Poll Tax Stampede Forecast

Come and get 'em! That's the plea these days at the Randall County tax office where a bale or two of poll tax receipts accumulated while voters awaited the outcome of this year's poll tax amendment election.

Since the amendment was rejected, all voters will need a 1963 poll tax receipt to vote in 1964 elections.

Bill Money, county tax assessor-collector, said his office so far this year has sold only a little over 300 poll taxes, plus an additional 90 or so in South Amarillo.

"Last year we handled about 9,000, and in the last general election year about 11,000," Money said.

As a result of the delay caused by the amendment election, Money said, the tax office here and in South Amarillo almost certainly will have to employ extra help to handle the expected flood of application.

In South Amarillo, five poll tax substations will be opened in January, Money said.

Deadline for payment of poll tax is Jan. 31, 1964, but Money emphasizes that payment must be received by the tax office on that day.

"That means we can't issue receipts for payments put in the mail on Jan. 31, and received by us on Feb. 1," he said.

City, county, school board and general elections are scheduled in 1964. The receipt issued for poll taxes will be good from Feb. 1, 1964, to Jan. 31, 1965. The tax is $1.75.

Who Said Birdbrain?

Deputies Guns Pop In Starling Battle

When, in the fullness of time, Sheriff L. S. (Slim) Johnston gets around to his memoirs, at least one chapter will be entitled, "Starlings Ain't Darlings."

As chief custodian of Randall County courthouse grounds, the sheriff each year is compelled to take up arms against squadrons of the pesky, black birds that spend daylight hours in the field but return at twilight to home base in the courthouse trees.

Last week, battle was again joined.

Grabbing scatterguns, deputies pumped a barrage of birdshot into the roosting flocks, and for a while the evening rained black feathers.

A repeat raid was laid on a couple of days later.

Results to date, says the sheriff, would fill about 15 tall wastepaper baskets, and the starlings seem to have forsaken their old haunts.

But he's not optimistic.

"They'll probably be back," he says, "and we'll have it to do all over again."

The annual starling invasion of parks all over Texas began around the turn of the last century as the result of importing the English starling to American shores. The bird took to the country like a native, and pretty soon was about to take over the country.

Nor has any adequate substitute for birdshot been found.

"They get used to noisemakers and lights," says the sheriff, "and they even buddy up to those aluminum owls that some folks thought would scare 'em. And we can't use poison," (See DEPUTIES, Page 7)

November Rain Wheat Booster

Showers in November benefited the winter wheat crop.

"Crop conditions at this time are nothing to brag about, yet seem to be more fortunate than most areas of the southwest," county agent John Brazzil said this week.

The acreage for cattle grazing is increasing. The irrigated wheat acreage has been furnishing grazing for some two weeks now.

Dryland grazing is available in most areas of the county. There is an abundance of stalk fields now being used by cattle.

Gains are increasing as excellent fall weather continues at least through November.

Fall seeded wheat was put in good condition but September and October rains did not come for full development of the crop. The fall armyworm invaded many fields and some replanting became necessary as the crop was destroyed.

Some of the heavier cattle will be moving to market in late December with others being kept to utilize the spring growth which comes in mid-February and lasts well into March.

Some confidence has been regained by cattlemen since prices have firmed a little. Much of the dry areas of Texas received recent rains which will allow them to have winter pasture and relieve some of the pressure on the market.

Two Die In Crash

This is what was left of the late model sedan in which Mrs. Albert Meyer was fatally injured Tuesday morning of this week. Her car was involved in a near head-on collision with another sedan driven by Mrs. Walter Graham. Mrs. Graham also was killed. In the background is Highway Patrolman Ken Meadows.

Rites Are Scheduled In Canyon

Two Canyon women were killed Tuesday morning as their cars ramed each other in a near head-on collision southwest of here.

Dead on arrival at Neblett Hospital in Canyon were: Mrs. Walter Graham, 53 years old, who had lived on the Graham ranch about 10 miles south of Buffalo Lake.

Mrs. John Albert Meyer, 55, whose farm home is about 8 miles southwest of Canyon.

The collision took place about 11 o'clock on FM road 1714, often known as Buffalo Lake cutoff, about 2 miles west of Highway 87.

The left front portions of both cars were heavily damaged.

Mrs. Graham apparently was en route to Canyon. It appeared that Mrs. Meyer was going home after grocery shopping. The back seat of her car was filled with groceries.

The Graham car was east bound and the Meyer vehicle was headed west.

Relatives of Mrs. Meyer say it often was her habit to pull over to a mail box for the family mail when en route home on such trips.

Investigating Highway Patrolman Ken Meadows described the accident as an intersection collision. He said Mrs. Meyer

Radiation Lab Brings Nuclear Age To WTSU

BY FRED TRIPP

Day and night, around the clock, bright lights burn in Room 117 of the Science Building at West Texas State University.

The bluish-white glare picks out a clutter of wires and dials, compact, switch-studded machines finished in blue enamel, a lead-lined box bearing the yellow cautionary device of the Atomic Energy Commission.

In a far corner, opposite the single, locked door that gives entry to Room 117, stands the "howitzer."

No artilleryman, however, is likely to recognize any part of his ordinary equipment in this cylindrical tank of clear plastic, 24 inches in diameter and about 30 inches deep, and the name itself is only a bit of the new, nucleonic slang.

For the "howitzer" is a piece of teaching equipment designed to contain, immersed in water, a sealed capsule of plutonium 239, the radioactive isotope with a half-life of 24,000 years.

When activated, it will be the heart of the new radiation laboratory that has brought the nuclear age to WT.

The lights burn to warn away snoopers--well disposed or otherwise--and to make it easy for security guards to keep an eye on some of the most costly and complicated gadgetry to arrive in these parts.

Basic equipment for the new laboratory was purchased through a $10,000 grant by the AEC to the WT physics, chemistry and biology departments. Installation has begun, and the lab is expected to be a going concern in about two weeks, according to W. R. (Bill) Wilson, associate professor of physics and chairman of the faculty committee for administration of the grant. (See RADIATION, Page 7)

Protocol For Flag At WT Set

The American flag in front of West Texas State University library building is being properly flown at full mast in spite of the national mourning period for President Kennedy.

This information comes from Virgil Henson, comptroller of the university.

Henson said several comments were received on flying of the flag at full mast Tuesday--the day following the late President's funeral.

Henson said he called the attorney general's office in Austin for a ruling. He was referred to the adjutant general's office and finally talked to a Colonel Matthews.

Matthews informed Henson that President Johnson's proclamation of a period of mourning did not affect the flying of the flag at state institutions. He said the flag should be flown at full mast unless instructions to the contrary are received from the school's board of regents.

"This is an official interpretation," Henson emphasized.

State Tryouts Set

10 Eagle Bandsmen On All-Region List

Ten Canyon High School band members were named to the All-Regional Band to be held Friday and Saturday in Perryton.

The students will be among 90 band members from nine area AA-AAA schools who will make up the regional band.

During the two day sessions, the band will practice all day Friday and Saturday morning. In the afternoon six of the Canyon band members will tryout for the All-State Band, which will perform in February of 1964.

Saturday night the AA-AAA band will give a concert playing four songs. These include "Coat of Arms March" by Kenney, "Milonia" by Butts, "Sequoia" by LaGassey and "A Festival Prelude" by Reed.

The ten named to the region band and the chair position they will occupy during the sessions are Linda Lowes, first chair flute; Mary Ann Wheelock, 13th chair clarinet; Sue Kiser, third chair bass clarinet; Sherri Lassiter, fourth chair bass clarinet; Ruth Ann Purcell, first chair contrabass clarinet.

Mark Hemphill will occupy the fourth chair cornet position. Randy Hobbs will be fifth chair french horn player, Mary Lou Johnson, will play sixth chair french horn, Mike Matthis, will be fifth chair trombone and John Haynes will be second chair baritone player.

Six Canyon students trying out for the all-state band from this region are Sue Kiser, Linda Lowes, Sherri Lassiter, Ruth Ann Purcell, Mark Hemphill, and John Haynes.

Band students attending the regional band concert and practices will be dismissed from classes all day Friday. They will spend the night in Perryton Friday and return to Canyon Saturday night.

Death Claims '74 Survivor

Mrs. Enoch Smoky, 93, one of the last survivors of the 1874 battle between U. S. troops and a mixed band of Kiowa, Arapaho and Cheyenne Indians in Palo Duro Canyon, died Nov. 28 at her home in Anadarko, Okla.

Mrs. Smoky, 93, had visited Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum during the past decade, according to Boone McClure, museum curator, and on one occasion had related details of the battle.

"She said she was three years old when Gen. Ranold Mackenzie attacked the Indian camp in the Palo Duro, and she was saved by a relative who picked her up and fled," McClure said.

"When I asked her if she remembered anything about the battle itself, she said it was like a soldier and Indian fight on television--a lot of shouting and shooting, and people running everywhere to get out of the way of the bullets."

Mrs. Smoky was the wife of Enoch Smoky of Anadarko, who survives her. Enoch Smoky achieved a certain fame in scholarly circles when he collaborated with researchers to develop the first printed Kiowa vocabulary and grammar, a copy of which is in museum files here.

The Mackenzie roundup of the tribesmen came during the Panhandle campaigns of the 70's.

Troopers cornered the Indians in the Canyon and slaughtered 1,400 of their horses. Faced with slow starvation, the Indians surrendered and were marched to Ft. Sill, Okla.

On the occasion of Mrs. Smoky's last visit here in the late 1950's McClure offered to conduct her on a tour of the battleground in the Palo Duro.

"She said she didn't want to go into the canyon because she was 'afraid of the bears,'" McClure said. "The remark is an interesting commentary on what the canyon must have been less than a century ago."

Commissioners Set Meeting

Randall County commissioners are scheduled to meet at 3 p.m. Friday with Amarillo authorities to discuss a traffic survey and over-all road planning program involving Randall and Potter counties and the city of Amarillo.

The meeting with members of the Amarillo City Commission and John DeShazo, Amarillo city traffic engineer, will be held in city commission chambers at Amarillo.

The road program must be worked out in order for Amarillo to qualify for federal aid in road building.

Quick--- What's My Line?

Early one morning last week an official of First National Bank in Canyon showed up at the office of Sheriff L. S. (Slim) Johnston.

He said he'd been vaguely upset by the look of things as he drove his car past the bank, and he thought he'd telephone, just to be sure.

An employee at the bank answered.

At the same time another employee picked up an extension phone, but didn't speak.

The bank officer heard the click of the extension, then the distinctive, hollow sound of an open line.

He spoke a few words. Then he hung up, and said he was still worried and would appreciate it if the sheriff would help check the matter out.

Sheriff Johnston called in Police Chief L. D. Caldwell. In a wink, every exit from the bank was covered by a peace officer.

Then the bank official strolled over to the bank and entered by the front door. A moment later, the telephone rang in the sheriff's office. A waiting officer relayed the message to the posse.

All clear, he said, just a little mistake.

Besides the open extension line, somebody also had forgotten that when a bank official phones the bank and asks a certain question, it must be answered in a certain way, on pain of arousing deep suspicion.

And that was how peace officers learned something about the care taken to insure that everybody's money is always safe, quite safe.

County Okays Purchase Of Pickup Truck

Randall County commissioners Monday accepted the bid of the Sid Stout Ford agency to provide a four-wheel-drive pickup truck for use in Precinct 1.

The winning bid of $2,260 with trade-in was the lowest bid for a vehicle conforming to advertised specifications.

Commissioners also accepted the bid of M. S. (Bill) Downing to provide and install a water cooler on the third floor of the courthouse. Downing's low bid was $197.

In other business, Mrs. Mavis Hill, district clerk, was allowed to employ temporary extra clerical help to dispose of a backlog of work.

Commissioner Bill Butler of Precinct 4 reported that Randall County voting machines have been moved from temporary storage to an extra room in the Randall County Annex at 3806 Bowie in South Amarillo.

CHRISTMAS TIME is in the air and the Canyon Chamber of Commerce felt the spirit this week as they put up the annual Christmas decorations on U. S. Highway 87. Decorations will be put up on both sides of the highway, down Fourth Avenue and around the square. Roland Black, Chamber manager, and Harvey Wesley, city worker, are pictured as they set the stage for a very Merry Christmas in Canyon.

News Helps Santa Mail Schedule

Christmas letters to Santa Claus will be published in the special Christmas edition of the Canyon News.

Youngsters wishing to write to Santa Claus this year should address their letters in care of Santa Claus, Canyon News.

The Christmas section of the paper will be published during Christmas week.

Buff Cagers Win One Lose One In Openers

The revamped West Texas State University cagers kicked off the 1963 season on the right foot by handing Texas Wesleyan a stunning 126-87 defeat Saturday night.

But in the second home game against North Texas State Monday the Buffs were tripped, 88-78.

It left the Buffs 1-1. West Texas will journey to Fort Worth Saturday for its second encounter with Texas Wesleyan at 8 p.m. The Buffs then host Midwestern Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the WT fieldhouse.

In the contest with the Texas Wesleyan Rams the Buffs fell behind 9-8 for the first time. They trailed until there was 7:03 left in the first half at which time the score was tied 31-all. David Shearod flipped in a five foot set shot to put the Buffs out front to stay. They never trailed from that point.

At halftime West Texas led the visitors, 49-43.

Then coach Jimmy Viramontes cagers exploded. They bombed the nets for 77 points in the final half while limiting the Rams to 46 points.

Rebounding played a big part in the victory as West Texas snagged 67 to Texas Wesleyan's 43. West Texas hit on 52 of 100 attempted field goals for a sizzling 52 per cent from the field. It also chipped in 22 of 32 free throw attempts.

The Rams managed to put up only 69 attempted field goals and hit only 28 for 41 per cent.

Seven of the ten varsity members scored in double figures. Leading the parade was little James Strahan with eight field goals and three free throws for 19 points. He was followed by Kirby Pugh with 18, Frank Schaffer 17, David Shearod and Marvin Mitchell both with 14, Gail Simpson 21 and Joe McWilliams with 11.

Schaffer pulled down 11 rebounds and Pugh led with 12.

In the game with the North Texas Eagles the Buffs played good the first half but miscues took their toll in the final 20 minutes.

West Texas trailed only once and the score was knotted only one time in the first half.

John Savage dumped in a free throw in the opening seconds to give the Eagles a 1-0 lead—the only lead they had in the half. Then with 18:36 remaining in the opening period Garland Baily sank a 20 foot field goal to put the score at 3-3.

It was then the Buffs all the way until the buzzer sounded ending the first half of play.

The Buffs controlled the boards 26-22 and hit on 19 of 38 attempted baskets for 50 per cent to pave the way to the halftime lead.

Scottie Pierce had poured in 11 points for West Texas and Marvin Mitchell had contributed nine to the cause at intermission. Savage chunked in 15 and Carl Miller 12 for the visitors at halftime.

But then a fired up band of Eagles came back at the beginning of the second half to throttle the Buffs.

Four mistakes by West Texas helped the Eagles mount an effective attack in the opening seconds. They took advantage scoring eight straight points. From there on North Texas was never extended to much by the battling Buffs although it was anyone's ball game until the closing minutes.

The way the redhot Eagles stormed back in the final half to work cautiously for their shots and drill the net for 50 per cent spelled the difference in the contest. They wound up beating the Buffs on the boards 50-44.

West Texas was unable to get a defense together capable of stopping the taller invaders for the final period.

Viramontes said following the game, "I feel like we lost to a real good ball club in the second half. We helped their cause by making foolish fouls

WT Frosh Drop Two

The West Texas freshmen have now dropped their first two opening games by thin margins.

Saturday the Stompers fell to a tough Amarillo Graham Plow crew, 92-84.

In the second game against Clarendon Jr. College the Frosh extended the Bulldogs before falling by only three points, 69-66.

The Stompers were within winning distance of the visitors Tuesday but couldn't muster enough steam to pull the victory out of the fire.

Wallace Franklin led the Stompers against Clarendon with 16 points, 10 of those on free throws. Sherfield Whaley chipped in 15, followed by Ted Wheeler with 14, Mickey Fitts and Wade King eight each and Billy Patton with five.

Wheeler just joined the squad. He has been playing with the varsity football team.

In the contest with Graham Plow it began as if it would become a runaway for the visitors. But the Stompers rallied forces after being down by 16 points to close the gap in the final minutes.

Halftime score was 51-27. Whaley, Fitts and Franklin ripped the nets for 64 of the total points. Whaley had 25, Fitts 22 and Franklin 17.

The freshmen battle 6 p.m. Tuesday before the varsity take the court.

and then our lack of experience showed under pressure." The Eagles All-American hopeful John Savage was held to only 23 points by a tough Buff defense. He poured in 36 in the opening contest against Texas Western Saturday in a losing effort.

Marvin Mitchell and Scottie Pierce were high for West Texas with 16 points each. James Strahan was the only other Buff to hit in double figures. He had 13 points.

In double digits for North Texas in addition to Savage were Miller and Baily with 16 apiece, followed by Chuck Fath and David Burns with 12 each.

Baily spelled the difference in the closing moments with his clutch free throws. He made 10 gratis pitches in the game—the margin of victory.

As a team the Buffs made only 27 of 70 attempted field goals for a cool 38.5 shooting percentage. They dropped in 24 of 31 free throw tries.

North Texas counted on 31 of 68 shots from the field for 45.5 per cent, and on 26 of 33 gratis pitches.

The Buffs have averaged 102 points per game in the first two contests while opponents hold a 87.5 average.

Powder Puff Game Played

A group of freshmen and sophomores downed the upperclassmen 20-12 in the annual Powder Puff football game held Thursday night, November 21, at West Texas State University's Buffalo Bowl.

The lowerclassmen (or ladies), saw Jan Pearce, Fort Worth freshman and Paulette Sullivan, Perryton sophomore, score three times to win a trophy awarded by the Women's P. E. Majors Club.

Charlotte Marshall, Dumas senior, and Mary Maples, Amarillo senior, scored for the junior-senior team.

Bill Bundy, Boerne junior, was winner of the title of Powder Puff King, winning out over Jim Denny of Borger and Jerry King of Olney.

Coaches for the winning team were Bill Callarman of Canyon and Larry Dunaway of Odessa. Upperclass coaches were Loy Dee Terry of Meadow and Les Brewer of Lubbock.

Scottie Pierce (52) goes high for a shot in the Texas Wesleyan game. Trying to stop the play is Marvin Picha (30), a Texas Wesleyan forward. In the background is WT's Joe McWilliams (22).

Don Breitling was high point man for Canyon as he sank eight points. Eddie Poole had seven, Bobby Evans and Jim Whinnery six each, Dudley Moore four, Steve Burgess three and Joel Richardson two.

Joe Johnson was high for White Deer with nine points.

The battle with Hereford was a nip-and-tuck contest through the entire game.

Hereford took a 12-11 first quarter lead and held a 18-25 margin at halftime.

At the end of the third period the Whitefaces led, 40-36.

Neither team could mount an effective offensive attack the final period.

The Eagles found themselves open for good shots in both tilts but had trouble hitting the basket. Canyon hit a cold 30 per cent against White Deer and a cool 32 per cent against Hereford.

It will probably still be a short while before the Eagles are in top form. They have been out for practice only a short time.

Evans led the Eagles in scoring against Hereford with three field goals and four free throws for a 10 point total. Burgess and Moore contributed eight points each. Richardson and Poole pitched in seven and six, respectively.

Canyon will play in the West Texas State Basketball Tournament Friday and Saturday. The Eagles will then host Muleshoe Monday at 8 p.m.

Buff Grid Season Frustrating One

By John Shields

The West Texas State University Buffaloes wrote the final chapter to a book which could be called "A Year of Frustration" Saturday night at El Paso.

The Buffs completed the nightmarish, frustrating, injury-marred season by falling to Texas Western's Miners, 13-0, in the last game of the 1963 season.

Some prognosticators had picked the Buffs to roll through undefeated even though it was probably the toughest schedule ever played by a West Texas squad. It was to have been one of, if not, the greatest teams to ever be fielded by West Texas.

All but seven of the 1962 team which finished 8-2 plus a victory over Ohio University in the Sun Bowl returned. In addition there were some junior college transfers plus the freshmen recruits.

The 1963 edition was in question only at tackle when the season began. "Big John" Varnell was the only tackle with any experience. That was taken care of by moving regular guard Jack Mayfield to tackle.

After the first few games it appeared evident the Buffs wouldn't be able to live up to expectations.

The Buffs didn't finish with a 4-4-1 season.

After the first contest of the season when the Buffs edged Arlington State 22-17 it appeared West Texas might not field the strong team expected.

The roof caved in after the Buffs won their first three contests—all at home.

But then came the major factor which led to the downfall—injuries. They weren't few but many. They came to almost every starter and to those on the alternate units.

The Buffs watched all of their hopes for an unblemished record float away. It was very seldom that coach Joe Kerbel could field a team that had worked much as a unit. There were always replacements that were necessary, many that had seen very little varsity playing time.

In the third contest against North Texas State All-American hopeful "Pistol Pete" Pedro received a leg injury which sidelined him for the remainder of the season. It was a big blow to the Buffs. With Pedro went their outside threat and breakaway runner. It also weakened their passing game.

Pedro had helped to place West Texas on the nation's football map. He didn't accomplish which chopped his yardage considerably.

Richardson returned the most punts—eight—for 77 yards and a 9.6 average.

Jerry King led in kickoff returns as he returned nine for 249 yards and an outstanding 27.7 average. Dennis Flanagan returned six for 99 yards.

Ross, a standout on defense, picked off six enemy passes. He returned them for 52 yards and one TD. Richardson stole four, Eppinette two and Tony Waters, Charlie Daves and King one each.

West Texas outgained opponents in rushing 1,775-1,372 yards.

In the passing department West Texas threw 121 and completed 56 while the opposition hurled 180 aerials and connected on 60. But the Buffs trailed in passing yardage, 916-723. The Buffs picked off 15 enemy passes while they lost nine.

Net yards gained showed the Buffs leading 2,498-2,288 and a 277.6 average per game to 265.3 for opponents.

But in a main category the Buffs performed poorly. They fumbled 27 times and lost 17, while opponents bobbled the pigskin 31 times but lost only 10.

Ross led in scoring with 50 points. He booted four of eight field goal attempts, eight of eight PAT kicks and scored five TD's for his total. Richardson was next with five TD's for 30 points. Gibson had 25, Pedro 18 and Waters and Lorraine 12 points each.

So now we can start watching the cagers and look forward to the 1964 football season.

game Monday night. Jimmy proved himself articulate but still lost the decision.

1964 Cowboy Schedule Out

The 1964 Happy Cowboys football schedule released last week shows Happy playing six district games instead of the usual four.

The Cowboys will play Lazbuddie, Bovina, Vega and Hart, which have been regular district tussles in the past. Texline and Nazareth have been added to the conference games for next year.

The Happy team will meet Turkey in the opening game September 11, 1964 in Turkey. The second game of the season will be Sept. 18 against Lefors in Lefors. Sept. 25, the Cowboys will meet Silverton in Cowboy Corral and Oct. 2, Happy will host Kress. Conference play begins Oct. 9, against Lazbuddie in Happy. Oct. 16, Bovina will travel to Happy for another district tussle and Oct. 23, the Cowboys will journey to Vega. Oct. 30, Texline will be in Happy and Nov. 13, Hart will host the Cowboys. The final game of the regular season will be Nov. 20, at Nazareth.

Happy will not play Claude and Friona next year. Both teams were on the 1963 schedule.

Mrs. Mary Boyce has returned from several days visit at St. Jo, Texas where she was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Floyd Bragg, and family.

Mrs. Boyce returned to Canyon during the holidays with her niece's family Mr. and Mrs. Winton Woods and Tony.

Visting in the Jim Boyce home during the holidays was Mrs. Boyce's sister, Mary Lee Cole, from Beaumont.

Miss Cathy Koch of Tulia was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Lowes last week end.

because it would be dangerous to cats and dogs."

Latest gimmick to be tried here was a kind of tree mine—a string of loud explosives tied into a slow-burning fuse.

In theory, the fuse would set off the noisemakers at intervals through the evening and night, robbing the birds of their proper rest. In practice, the birds soon got used to the bangs and flashes and slept soundly.

Now, says the sheriff, he's giving some thought to a fumicide guaranteed to be an effective discourager.

"Trouble is," he says, "the stuff has to be painted on the trees, and the manufacturer won't guarantee that it won't hurt them."

"From our point of view, we'd rather put up with starlings than try to explain a whole lawnful of dead trees."

Mrs. Jessie Rusk attended funeral services for her sister, Mrs. J. Shalless, at Electra, Texas last week.

may have been about to turn south on a county road.

Meadows surmised that Mrs. Graham saw the Meyer car pulling to the left and swerved her own car off the pavement. He said markings indicate that two wheels of the Graham vehicle left the pavement.

Meadows further conjectured that Mrs. Meyer did not see the approaching Graham automobile.

The Meyer car came to rest in the westbound traffic lane about 53 feet from the point of impact. "It was knocked backwards that far," the officer declared.

The Graham vehicle came to rest 137 feet from the point of impact. It had swung around and also was headed west.

Meadows said neither driver applied the brakes. There were no skid marks on the pavement, he noted.

Mrs. Meyer was pinned in the wreckage. About 10 minutes were required to pry a door off the car, knock the seat back and release her.

She was alive while being taken from the car but was dead on arrival at the hospital.

Mrs. Graham was thrown from her car. The left door of the car was torn away. It was found in a pasture about 50 feet from the car. The gasoline tank also was sheared from the Graham vehicle. It was found 75 feet away.

Mrs. Graham is believed to have died instantly.

The accident occurred on a straight stretch of Buffalo Lake road in bright sunlight.

As far as could be determined, there were no witnesses to the tragedy.

Donald Ruthart notified Randall County Sheriff's Department. Ironically, it was Mrs. Erwin Meyer, office deputy and sister-in-law of Mrs. Albert Meyer, who took the call.

The Sheriff's Department notified the highway patrol.

Funeral services for both accident victims have been announced by LaGrone Funeral Home.

OES Members Have Dinner

The annual Christmas dinner for members of the Order of the Eastern Star of Canyon was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Iverson Leake with 25 active and former members attending.

A Christmas theme prevailed in decorations for the social gathering. The turkey dinner with all of the trimmings was followed by a gift exchange.

The worthy matron, Mary Lee Colclaver, was in attendance for the dinner as were former members of the local OES including Louella Patterson of Pampa, Mrs. Beryl Mayfield of Lubbock and Mattie May Williams of Canyon.

Here are two cars in which Canyon women met their deaths Tuesday morning. The vehicle in the foreground was driven by Mrs. Albert Meyer. The auto in the background was operated by Mrs. Walter Graham. Both vehicles were demolished.

Program Opens Holiday Season

Women of the First Methodist Church of Canyon observed the beginning of the Christmas holiday season with a program and luncheon on Tuesday of this week.

A program of songs and poems was presented by Mrs. Russell Altmiller. Selections on the program included "If I Were Joseph", "If I Had Been The Innkeeper", and "If I Had Been Mary".

The ladies also made plans for a Christmas "this-n-that" sale to be held at the showroom of the Jess Stout Ford Company in Canyon on Saturday, December 7th. The coffee hour and sale will begin at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

Novelty gifts including hand made candles, Christmas stockings, aprons, candy, cakes and other gifts will be sold and the public is invited to attend.

W. R. (BILL) WILSON, left, associate professor of physics and radiation protection officer at West Texas State University, and Marvin Beasley, instructor in chemistry, set up some of the complex gadgetry of the new radiation laboratory at WT. At right is "howitzer," a plastic tank in which a quantity of plutonium will be used as a radiation source. Equipment will be used to instruct students in nuclear technology.

Radiation . .

For Wilson and his colleagues, the new facility opens out the prospect of a revised and expanded curriculum that will offer qualified students sound training in nuclear laboratory techniques.

"Until now," Wilson said, "we've been able to offer only a lecture course in nuclear physics. Now we hope to establish a balanced program of lecture and lab work."

Dr. Claude Boatman, head of the WT chemistry department, hails the laboratory as making possible a course in nuclear chemistry which he hopes to offer next semester.

And Dr. William A. Cooper, associate professor of biology, sees in the future a course in advanced physiology which would acquaint students with the technique of tracing radioactive substances in the tissues of animals.

Wilson estimated that 15 students in advanced physics, nine in advanced chemistry and 20 in advanced biology classes will be able to make limited use of the laboratory in the immediate future. More extensive use, together with expanded courses of study, will require planning and preparation and may not be realized until next year.

The entire program, Wilson said, will be coordinated with development of the Killgore Research Center, a $500,000 plus project scheduled for completion in the fall of 1965.

He pointed out that the current grant of $10,000 is the maximum AEC contribution to a college or university in the "Priority A" category. Balance of the WT application for $20,000 was refused at this time "without prejudice relative to a possible resubmission."

"That means we may be able to apply later for additional funds, perhaps in the spring," Wilson said.

Conditions of the grant require that the greater part of it be used for purchase of teaching aids rather than the more costly equipment required for advanced research.

"As a result," Wilson explained, "we have devoted about three-quarters of the fund to setting up a basic teaching lab and have tried to squeeze the remainder out far enough to cover a few research instruments.

In addition to serving as chairman of the administrative committee, Wilson also has been designated Radiation Protection Officer for the laboratory and will be responsible for safety precautions with respect to equipment and personnel. He will be assisted by Marvin Beasley, instructor in chemistry.

Safety procedures will include use of dosimeters—instruments resembling the ordinary fountain pen—to be worn by every person while he is in the lab, as well as a periodic check of the "howitzer" and other activated materials to insure against radioactive leakage.

"The material we will use here is not dangerous in the sense that the powerful reactors in big labs are dangerous, neither is it a play thing," Wilson said.

"We estimate a single X-ray exposure would be more than the radiation a student would receive in 10 hours of lab work. Nevertheless, each person working in the lab will be issued a dosimeter registered to him, and readings will be checked before and after each lab period."

Students will use the laboratory for experiments in the study of the construction of nuclei, nuclear transformation, determination of half-lives of natural and artificial isotopes, and disintegration constants.

Besides Wilson, Boatman and Cooper, members of the administrative committee include Dr. Robert Busteed, head of the biology department and chairman of the WT science division, and Dr. J. S. Urban, head of the physics department.

Dallas Couple Visits Canyon

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bennett and children, Cindy and Chuck, of Dallas were week end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Higdon.

Bennett is the acting superintendent of the Juliette Fowler Christian Home for Children in Dallas. His wife serves as a housemother at the home.

The Bennett and Higdon families met last summer while Dorothy Higdon, a daughter of the Marion Higdon, served as a volunteer worker for the children's home.

Bufs Bow To Miners 13-0 In Season Finale

By John Shields

The season finale turned out to be a long night for West Texas State, Saturday at the Sun Bowl in El Paso.

Texas Western's Miners sought revenge and revenge they got by tripping the Bufs, 13-0. Last season West Texas took a lopsided 49-0 victory.

Facing the nation's top pass defense club, West Texas found the hosts' defense almost unpenetrable both on the ground and through the air.

It marked the first time a club coached by Joe Kerbel at West Texas had been blanked in his four year tenure. But the Miners did and in a convincing manner.

The Bufs managed only 122 yards total offense--their lowest output of the season. West Texas gained 73 of those yards in the first half, all rushing. Texas Western brought its mark to 3-6. West Texas completed the season with a 4-4-1 record.

The first half was scoreless and West Texas only got past the Miner's 48 yard line one time. It was the toughest time this season the Buffaloes had in moving the puskins.

David Fleming, a freshman, started his first varsity game for the Bufs and did a good job. Quarterback Bill Bundy saw limited action. It was the first time he had played since the University of Arizona tilt. First string quarterback, "Hoot" Gibson, was sidelined for the season in the same contest.

West Texas elected to receive and on the opening kickoff Jerry Richardson returned the ball to his own 44.

The Bufs then made their biggest threat of the first half by moving to the Miner's 34 in five plays. But on a fourth and two situation Richardson failed to find running room up the middle and was racked up for a two yard loss to end the threat.

Both teams then punted once. Texas Western began a threat from its own 21 after receiving a punt. In 13 plays the Miners had fought to the Bufs 29. But a pass fell incomplete on fourth and five.

Richardson popped the nets with 10 points for Canyon. The freshmen played Dimmitt tonight (Thursday) at 6 p.m. They will journey to Plainview to tangle with Coronado Monday at 7 p.m.

Canyon's seventh graders beat Estacado, 26-13.

Their next outing is with Coronado Monday at 5 p.m. The eighth graders lost their tussle to Estacado, 38-28.

Andy Moreland was high point man for Canyon with 14 points. They play Coronado Monday at 6 p.m.

It was the season opener for all three Canyon teams.

Plainview Ninth Grade Nips Canyon

Plainview Estacado slipped past Canyon's ninth graders, 40-39, Monday overtime.

The score at the end of regulation play was knotted at 35-35.

Canyon led in the first quarter 12-8 and 19-15 at halftime. But it couldn't manage to hold the lead and trailed 29-24 going into the final period. A late rally knotted the score as the buzzer sounded.

Richard Gardner popped the nets with 10 points for Canyon. The freshmen played Dimmitt tonight (Thursday) at 6 p.m. They will journey to Plainview to tangle with Coronado Monday at 7 p.m.

Canyon's seventh graders beat Estacado, 26-13.

West Texas gained possession but were forced to punt once again.

Then quarterback Jerry Tucker initiated a march from his own 34 that was halted when another fourth down pass fell incomplete.

On the next series Texas Western once again decided to go to the air on a fourth and eleven situation. Richardson picked off Tucker's aerial at the West Texas 16.

The Bufs were then forced to punt. Ollie Ross fumbled the ball as he was attempting to punt and the Miners took over at the Buf's 21 yard stripe.

Texas Western fumbled three plays later and West Texas recovered.

Both teams failed to threaten the remainder of the first half. Texas Western was forced to punt on fourth down after receiving the second half kickoff.

The Bufs set up shop at their own 47. Ross then punted on fourth down. Julius Glosson fumbled the punt with West

It left them with an 0-2 record.

Canyon trailed by 12 points in the opening quarter, 19-7. At halftime the count stood at 35-17.

The B teamers played defense during the third stanza and closed the gap while limiting Hereford to only four points. Score at the end of the third period was 39-27.

Tom Lair was high for Canyon with 15 points followed by Dennis Haley with six, Bruce Winn six, Bill Cawthon four, Al Sternberg three, James Evans three and Ken Brannum with two.

They play their next contest before the varsity Canyon-Muleshoe game Monday at 6:15 p.m.

Pro Teams Draft Three

Three players from the 1963 West Texas State football team were drafted by the pro's Saturday.

Big 230 pound tackle John Varnell was drafted in the fifth round by Los Angeles of the National Football League and in the same round by Houston of the American Football League. The AFL completed their drafting Saturday and the NFL waited until Monday to begin.

Varnell has been injured a good portion of the time since joining the Bufs but has played well and just completed an outstanding season.

The Plainview, Texas native came to West Texas unannounced and asked to play football. He could develop into one of the toughest linemen in the pro ranks in the future.

Halfback Jerry Richardson was chosen in the third round by Los Angeles of the NFL and also in the eighth by Denver of the AFL.

Richardson was one of the most versatile players on the squad. He runs, throws and catches the ball as well as his outstanding defensive work.

Cowboys On All-District Grid Squad

Three boys from Happy-Cowboy football squad were named to the All-District team and six Happy players received honorable mention in district competition.

Jim McManigal, junior linebacker, Tom Moudy, juniorend, and Doyle Bryan, senior guard, were picked for the all-district defensive team.

Gary Via, junior linebacker, and Eddie Moudy, senior tackle, received honorable mention for the defensive team.

Four of the Cowboys team, who were named to the offensive team honorable mention list, were Jim McManigal, Doyle Bryan and Tom Moudy, all backs, and Gary Via, at end position.

The Cowboys had a 3-7 season winning against Turkey, Kress and Lazbuddie.

A football banquet honoring the 1963 team was held Monday night in the high school cafeteria.

ALL-DISTRICT players from Happy were named recently. Coach Dean King congratulates Tom Moudy, junior, Doyle Bryan, senior, and Jim McManigal, junior. The boys were named to the All-District defensive team. Several other Cowboys were on the honorable mention list both defensive and offensive. Cowboys had a 3-7 season after going all the way to regional championship in 1962.

Texas recovering at the 25. With good field position it appeared the Bufs might be able to push across the first score of the contest.

A four yard pass from Fleming to Woody Gilliland clicked for four yards on the first play. On the following play Richardson was stopped for a yard loss and for no gain on the next down. Ross attempted a field goal which veered to the left on fourth down.

Texas Western controlled the ball most of the remainder of the game. West Texas couldn't manage to get past the Miner's 34 before the final buzzer.

The Miners started their first scoring march from their 34. Harrison Gamble was thrown for a five yard loss on the first play and Tucker then threw incomplete. Amarillo quarterback, Val Tenorio, came in and became the hero by completing a pass good for 71 yards and the touchdown to Gamble at 2:41 in the third quarter.

The PAT attempt failed and Texas Western led, 6-0.

A fumbled punt by West Texas set up the Miner's next TD. The drive covered 22 yards in only six plays.

Tucker slipped over from two yards out for the final TD with 9:22 left to be played. Curtis Robinson booted the PAT for the final 13-0 score.

Ten seniors completed their grid careers at West Texas, although two weren't able to play. They were halfbacks Jerry Richardson and Pete Pedro, fullbacks Ollie Ross and Bill Loran, tackles John Varnell and Jack Mayfield, quarterback David "Hoot" Gibson, guard Jim Denny and ends Quinton Eppinette and Jim Ostrander. Gibson and Pedro were sidelined due to injuries. Junior halfback Jerry King missed the contest because of an injury.

Ross was the standout on defense with 10 tackles and two assists. Center Charlie Daves had six tackles and six assists.

Earl West carried for 29 yards to lead the Bufs in rushing. Loran had 28 yards and Richardson and Ross had 17 each.

West Texas trailed in total yardage 292-122 yards and in first downs 16-7. The Bufs connected on six of 20 passes and the Miners completed 7 of 17 attempts.

It was the end of a frustrating season marked by injuries for the Bufs.

Here's why you'll like it.

Here's why you'll tell other people you like it.

Wide-Track, for instance. Wide-Track is what does away with tilting your way around turns. Pontiac's smoother, quieter ride is another thing you might point out. A big 389-cubic-inch Trophy V-8 is standard in each and every Pontiac. You get to choose from 34 engine/transmission teams to harness all that power. (Happy choosing!)

Now then—on to more of the things that make the '64 Pontiac so thoroughly likeable. Frankly, we couldn't think of anything radical to do with this car. Oh, we made the styling even more stylish, as you can plainly see. We lavished even more care on the interiors. We even improved the light bulbs. But as for more vital things, why change? Improve, refine, sharpen—yes. Change—no. And you can tell that to your friends.

MEANDERING WITH MARGO

The season ended on a rather low note for the Buffs with the defeat handed down by Texas Western in El Paso Saturday.

Sports writers in the Panhandle pointed out the 13-0 game was the first blackout WT head coach Joe Kerbel has had since coming to Canyon.

After last season's high riding trail to the Sun Bowl where the Buffs met Ohio State, this season's record looks a little disheartening.

However, we must say Kerbel has been plagued with many injuries, which no coach or team has control over. The WT injury list seemed to grow after each game and most of the boys hurt were eliminated for at least one game and usually two, three or four of the tils.

Pistol Pete Pedro, running star for the Buffs, who was expected to put in his most spectacular year, was benched early in the season because of injuries and saw very little action.

All in all, we must say the boys did a fine job, and the coaches tried hard to fill gaps in the lineup. They were just caught short-handed because of extensive injuries.

Sports season does not stop with football, in fact if anything the sports fans are really out during the winter months for the indoor game of basketball.

A spectator can never become bored in this city of ours. Between the university and the high school several evenings a week are taken up, but if you are still not satisfied, the pee wees generally have some sort of activity going on.

Hilltop Views

Now that our great emotional upheaval is gradually subsiding (we hope) it is time that all Americans of whatever political complexion, economic status, religious creed, racial classification, or social standing should examine the quality of their service to their country—their fitness for citizenship in this republic. Am I an asset or a liability to the United States of America? Do I really understand what such citizenship requires of me, or am I just a parrot speaking imperfectly words that I know not the meaning of, perhaps just repeating the words of an author?

The crisis in which we find ourselves is just that serious. One commentator puts it this way. "America is struggling for its soul—it is now clear to all, our passions have taken many crooked courses. Suspicion and hatred have surmounted trust and love among too many large minorities. Hard, unmelted lumps are revealed at the bottom of the American melting pot. Almost daily, legal force must be called upon to restrain illegal force. We are deeply infiltrated by the Negro-haters, the white-haters, the foreigner-haters, the city-haters, government-haters, the haters of the rich and the haters of the poor, those of the political right who hate, and those of the left."

"A century ago the struggle by means of free discussion broke down. The government broke down, the nation broke apart, Lincoln died, and vengeance took possession of men otherwise good."

"John Kennedy has died in the midst of the present struggle for the national soul, a kind of civil war, in which the cohorts are many and the battle lines not very clear. It is not a complete answer to say that one individual lunatic was responsible and that all cities, all countries have their lunatics. His lunacy was fortified by its alignment with one of many irrational political mystiques. The additional furies that his act released destroyed him in turn, as the furies released by John Wilkes Booth destroyed Booth a hundred years ago."

It is noticeable here that the author of the above words, Mr. Eric Sevareid, finds a parallel in the conditions that produced the assassination of Lincoln and those that produced the assassination of Kennedy, viz., wide-spread, intense suspicion and hatred. These conditions are no less deadly to a nation than to an individual. Bitterness and hatred are cancer in the bloodstream.

It is encouraging to know that so many people are making the correct diagnosis of our national ailment. Within the last week several leaders in each of our two political parties have spoken out in warnings to the public against extremism. This does not mean that we should shut out all differences, arguments, and debates—only that we should never allow our emotions to over-ride reason.

Former U. S. Senator Guy Gillette, Republican of Iowa, is so aware of the national danger engendered by political campaigns that he is organizing a committee to seek ways to "curb hate and violence that may stem from the murder of President Kennedy."

Charles Taft, a brother of former Senator Robert Taft of Ohio and son of former President William Howard Taft, is reported to have wired Senator Gillette as follows: "I fear a wider reaction to the President's assassination than the murder of his killer, leading to growth of contempt for law and morality and responsible political processes."

"The difference between doing anything to win an election campaign and shooting a President is only one of degree." Besides Senator Gillette and Mr. Taft the committee to curb hate consists of seven other distinguished Americans. It is hoped that the public will co-operate fully and enthusiastically with this truly patriotic body. Let us remember that not only our country but civilization as a whole is struggling for its soul.

What We Can Do

(An Editorial)

These are troubled times—as most times are. A lot of folks want to do something for their country. Many of them want to do something in a blinding flash which will have national significance and bring the country a status agreeing with their particular philosophy.

Not all of us can be a George Washington and accept the surrender of an enemy general. Most of us are humble folk and are limited in our capabilities.

The most important thing most of us can do for our country is just be good citizens. We can pay our poll tax and vote. We can participate in the affairs of our community instead of being spectators. We can serve on juries, the school board or city council. We might even get out and do some Chamber of Commerce work.

We can be doers instead of critics. We can take part in the work of our respective churches. We can work for wholesome and educational entertainment for our town.

We can take an interest in such projects as the Panhandle Heritage Foundation—designed to honor and perpetuate the memory of those who pioneered the Panhandle.

We can respect the laws of our state and nation and rear our children to do likewise. We can strive to be men of good reputation, meeting our obligations—moral and financial. Communities are the blocks from which the nation is built. Let's start making America better by making Canyon better.

by Troy Martin

FROM THE CANYON RIM

The saddest aftermath of the assassination of President Kennedy is the willingness of our people in high and low places to mouth exactly what the communists want them to mouth.

Chief Justice Earl Warren, with absolutely no basis of fact, immediately blamed the assassination on the "rightwing." It later developed that the man who officers say pulled the trigger on the President admitted being a communist.

Esteem for his position as chief justice should have kept Warren from making a statement of any kind. Had the accused slayer been brought to trial, the case undoubtedly would have gone eventually to the Supreme Court.

Justice Warren, having made the statement irresponsible even for a man on the street, legally would have been disqualified to sit in judgement in the case.

We cannot fathom President Johnson having appointed Warren head of a commission to investigate the assassination of President Kennedy after Warren had made such a prejudicial statement. Yet this is exactly what President Johnson did.

Three days before President Johnson appointed the commission to investigate the assassination, such a commission was called for in an editorial in the mid-week edition of the communist Worker, according to published reports.

"Such an investigating commission, headed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, should be composed of citizens and experts who enjoy the confidence of the nation," the Worker went on.

Last Friday night the President announced the selection of the board of inquiry headed by Warren.

Before we are accused of accusing the President of being disloyal, let us hasten to say we have the utmost confidence in the patriotism of Lyndon B. Johnson. We think he would do well to be on his guard.

We do not believe that Johnson was aware of the wishes of the communists before he made the appointment. The stark fact remains that their wishes were carried out. We simply ask: Why?

To cap it off, the country has been sold a bill of goods that a "hate campaign" is going on. Anyone voicing too loud an opinion contrary to the communist design is labeled a "hate peddler."

A Red mad dog shot down the President of the United States in the street and still we refuse to believe that communists pose an internal threat to our security.

It strikes us as strange that Dallas should have been chosen as the site for the assassination of the President.

Lee Harvey Oswald was not a Texan. As matter of fact he did not move to Dallas until Oct. 14 of this year.

The truth is that myself, Dr. Herschel Coffee from West Texas State and Francis Shell were huddled at one end of the coffee counter awaiting news.

When it came all three of us wept.

A high school boy was supposed to have clapped his hands. He swears tearfully that it just didn't happen.

In these crucial days we can best serve our country by being certain of the truth of what we say. Remember, "they" can say anything and it's usually a lie.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Moreland and family were in Borger on Thanksgiving day for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Mildred Moreland.

They also visited with his brother, Bill Moreland, and family and with his sister's family, Mr. and Mrs. George Brain.

SEATED IN one of her high backed rockers, Mrs. Eugene S. Bonds selects her recipe for Fruit Cake Cookies to share with our readers this week. The family heirloom chairs were restored to the original wood and recovered in velvet as a gift from her husband, Eugene, last year. The Bonds live at 2605 10th Avenue with their son, Eugene Jr., and the family pet, a three year old white haired chihuahua named Pixie.

Mrs. Eugene S. Bonds Names Favorite Recipe This Week

By Lorena Miller

A holiday recipe for Fruit Cake Cookies is being shared with our readers this week by Mrs. Eugene S. Bonds.

Mrs. Bonds and her husband, a dairy and ranch man, have one son, Eugene, Jr., age 15.

Known as Mary Alice to her friends, Mrs. Bonds first moved to the Canyon area with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Campfield. She was about 10 years old at the time.

The farm, that is still operated by Bonds, was his home during youth. The Eugene S. Bonds had their family residence at the farm until about two years ago when they bought their present home at 2605 10th Avenue in Canyon.

A modern three bedroom brick home, it has a large kitchen area with a built-in dining bar and an adjacent dining area. The family den, located next to the kitchen, exits to the backyard with sliding glass doors and is joined to the living room with folding wooden panel doors.

"These high backed rockers can be traced back over 100 years to my great grandmother," commented Mrs. Bonds of the family heirlooms that grace her living room. The heirloom rockers were restored to their original wood and the cushions were covered in American Beauty rose toned velvet last year.

"When we selected the velvet to re-cover the rockers, they had to fly it here from New York to obtain the right color," Mrs. Bonds said as she recalled that the first chair was found in her aunt's attic in Kansas some years ago. Later, the second rocker was presented to her through her parents.

A davenport and love seat were other items of the original set and Mrs. Bonds hopes to someday attain the davenport and have it restored and re-covered to match the two rockers.

The Bonds attend the First Methodist Church of Canyon. Mrs. Bonds is active in the Woman's Society for Christian Service and a member of the Murray Bible Class.

A past president of the Junior Woman's Book Club, Mrs. Bonds is a member of the Happy Order of the Eastern Star No. 562. Her husband is also a member of the OES and Masonic Lodge No. 1008 at Happy.

Selected as "bowler of the year for 1962-63" Mr. Bonds has participated in the fall bowling league for three years and has a number of trophies to his credit. Bowling has caught on as a family sport since Mrs. Bonds also participates on a league and son, Eugene Jr., often bowls for recreation.

"I enjoy sewing and do a lot of handwork, needlepoint and knitting for my family," Mrs. Bonds said. "Last year I made an afghan for the divan in the den and Pixie (the family pet) has claimed it as her own."

Pixie, a three year old white haired chihuahua, is almost another member of the family and always greets Eugene, Jr. when he returns from school.

Eugene, Jr., nicknamed "Shug" by his parents, is a freshman at Canyon High School where he participates in activities of the Future Farmers of America and is a member of the FFA Quiz Team.

He plays trombone with the Eagle Band and is a member of Boy Scout Troop 31. At present, Eugene, Jr. is working toward the Eagle rank in scouting. During last summer, he spent ten days at the Philmont Scout Ranch near Cimarron, New Mexico, and plans to attend the National Jamboree in Valley Forge, Pennsylvania during the summer of 1964.

As a 4-H member, Eugene, Jr. received several awards and ribbons for his cattle projects and now has a small herd of Angus heifers on his father's dairy farm.

The dairy farm is located 18 miles southwest of Canyon and they "milk about 140 cows year 'round" according to Mrs. Bonds. Beef cattle are also raised along with wheat.

Mr. Bonds is a member of the North Texas Producers Association for dairymen and participates in activities of the Farm Bureau.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Campfield, parents of Mrs. Bonds live in Canyon also and he is a retired agent for the Santa Fe Railroad. A brother of Mrs. Bonds, Harry Campfield, lives in Dumas and her sister, Mrs. Leroy Krause, lives in Cupertino, California.

The parents of Mr. Bonds, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Bonds, Sr. are living in Bentonville, Arkansas where he is a retired stock farmer and now is a real estate agent. Brothers of Mr. Bonds are G. J. Bonds, Jr. of Canyon; Jack Bonds of Rogers, Arkansas; Billy Bonds of Bartlesville, Oklahoma; and Joe Ed Bonds of Bentonville, Arkansas. Mrs. Lonnie Bolain of Bentonville, Arkansas is also a sister of Mr. Bonds.

Mrs. Bonds often cans and freezes fresh produce for her family's use and her recipe for Fruit Cake Cookies was clipped from an issue of the Farmer Stockman magazine several years ago.

"I served the fruit cake cookies at a party one morning and several ladies requested the recipe," Mrs. Bonds said.

The recipe follows:

FRUIT CAKE COOKIES

2 pounds dates

1/2 lb. candied cherries

1/2 lb. candied pineapple

1 lb. pecans

2 1/2 cups sifted flour
1 tsp. soda
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. cinnamon
1 cup butter or margarine
1 1/2 cups sugar
2 eggs.

Cut fruit and nuts in large pieces.

Sift flour, soda, salt and cinnamon and scatter about a half cupful over the fruit and nuts.

Cream shortening. Add sugar gradually, creaming until mixture is light and fluffy. Beat in eggs.

To creamed mixture, add fruits and nuts and remaining sifted dry ingredients. Mix well. Drop from teaspoon onto ungreased baking sheet.

Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) for 10 minutes. Remove from oven and cool slightly. Makes about 150 cookies that will keep well for several weeks in a sealed container. The cookies ripen with age and become more mellow.

The Floyd Langfords and her sister, Cathy Wiley, attended the Buffalo football game at El Paso during the holiday week end.

A guest in the Langford home for the holidays was Mrs. Langford's mother, Mrs. Max Wiley, from Dallas.

Stipe Child Dies Monday

Fire Destroys Grassland On Stengel Farm

Nearly 75 acres of grassland was destroyed by fire Sunday afternoon on the A. C. Stengel farm five miles northwest of Canyon.

Volunteer firemen answered the call at 3:35 p.m. Sunday and the fire was extinguished in less than an hour.

Fire captain Joe Rice said the fire was probably started by an electrical fence.

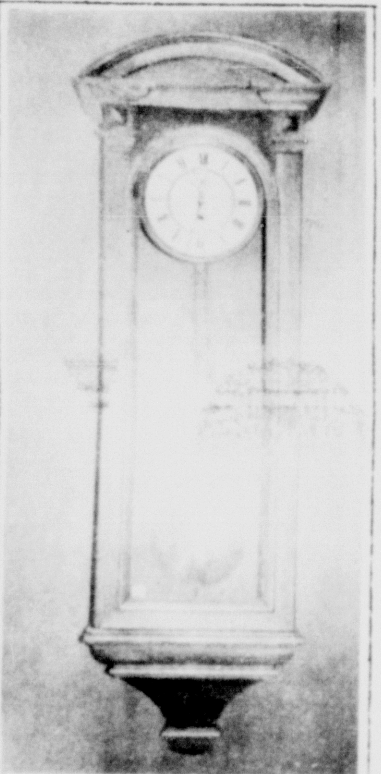

This was the third fire on the Stengel farm in less than a year.

Matthew Rex Griffin celebrated his fourth birthday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Griffin, on Thanksgiving Day.

Turkey shaped candles centered the dining table that was laid with a white cloth. Flanking the turkey candles were two candles arranged on a base of acorns and leaves. Following the luncheon, a birthday cake that was centered with a turkey of butter-cream frosting was served to guests present.

Attending the birthday celebration were his grandparents, Mrs. D. R. Erskin and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Griffin. Others present included the honoree's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Griffin and children, Billy, Ross, Paul and Rexann.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

The rescheduled 4-H Awards program will be held in the Randall County Junior Livestock Building Thursday night, Dec. 5 starting at 7 p.m. The original date was Nov. 23.

Farmers and ranchers are reminded that December is an excellent month to bring farm records up to date. Income tax time is just around the corner. Many steps can be taken to even out the tax load if records are completed early. If expenses are running high then sales of livestock or crops being held can be made before the first of the year.

If sales are high and tax takes seem to be large, then supplies such as seed, feed, fertilizers, fuel, can be purchased and counted on the expense items for this year. All this can be done only if accurate records are kept and properly analyzed.

Canyon Bands Give Concert

Canyon bands will give a Christmas concert Friday, December 13, beginning at 7 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

The sixth grade band will perform first with several numbers followed by the junior high band. Canyon High School band will conclude the program with a combination of marches and Christmas songs.

Admission to the concert will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. Tickets will be on sale only at the door.

It's Just A Question Of Mind vs. Matter—

BY FRED TRIPP

"'Friend,' I said, 'enough is enough.'"

Thus A. W. Lair, reporting on a conversation he had recently with A. W. Lair.

The self-lecture occurred on Nov. 5. Since then, the Canyon attorney says he has successfully eschewed cigarettes without chewing up more than 16 packages of chewing gum, 8 packages of assorted mints and candies, and a choice selection of between-meal snacks.

As of today, however, he's confident that he's on his way to kicking the habit.

Like a good many other people up and down the country, Lair decided he ought to quit smoking because, as he puts it, "I just got disgusted with myself."

"It wasn't so much for any medical reason," he says, "as it was for a good, sound, psychological reason. I'd reached the point where smoking gave me no pleasure. It was just something to do...a compulsion that was becoming a distraction."

"Well, I'm just hard-headed enough so that I don't want to be dictated to by such a silly thing."

Lair says he broke away from the meaningless drag without using any of the over-the-counter tablets or pills advertised as aids for the smoker who wants to quit.

"When I feel like I want to smoke, I turn to some work that has to be done and I get real busy," he says. "That usually pushes the urge out of mind. I've also found mints and chewing gum helpful."

Lair admits, however that he's probably got a way to go before he can hit the anti-cigarette lecture circuit.

He had been puffing for about 25 years, averaging "roughly" a pack to a pack and a half per day.

"Naturally," he says, "I still have a strong desire to smoke, and it bothers me to be around people who smoke. But I don't think I'm going to give in now, after getting along as well as I have for two weeks."

"The whole business calls for will power, and I think I have it."

In passing, it might be remarked editorially that Lair appears to have considerable resources of will. For some months now he has allowed to remain on his office wall a trick electric clock that runs backward. Any man who can tolerate such a contraption on the premises should, it seems to us, have no trouble in ditching the weed.

Should he, however, find his defenses weakening, he has only to turn to his friend Jack Taylor for a cheering boost.

Taylor, of Taylor & Sons Lumber here, says he quit cigarettes in February, 1962, and so far has managed to resist all temptation to backslide.

"I think it was the hardest thing I ever did in my life," he says, "but there's no question that it was also one of the smartest things I ever did. I feel better, food tastes better, my nerves are better."

Taylor, a 25-year man who averaged "more than a pack of cigarettes" per day, says he decided to quit when, giving the matter some thought, he arrived at the conclusion that "you finally reach an age where a fellow has to impose a little self-discipline."

"It was an ordeal, though, in the beginning. It was so bad that--believe it or not--I used to fall asleep and dream I was smoking, then wake up and look for a cigarette in my hand."

Taylor says that "for six or eight months after I quit I wanted a cigarette badly, but now the craving has disappeared. I'm not even bothered by other persons' smoking."

The old pro also boasts that he has passed with flying colors the roughest test that confronts a confirmed smoker who has quit.

"I mean the social gathering," says Taylor. "Everybody's relaxed, having a good time, enjoying good food and company. So all the smokers light up, and in a little while the air turns blue. If you can forego the pleasure--or what you might think is the pleasure--of joining in, you've got it made."

"Me, I have..."

Awright, Jack Taylor, awright.

Just remember how pride goeth before, etc.

Meanwhile, power to you--and to our esteemed counselor and all the other folks who have proved the power of mind over matter.

What Must She Know About Auto Insurance?

Very little actually. When it comes to insurance protection, it's not how much she knows, but how much she has. And that's where we come in. As an independent agency, we provide up-to-date protection to fit her family's need. We tailor the right coverages... in just the right amounts... and at the best possible rates.

She knows we're taking care of her. Come to think of it, that's about all she needs to know.

Mrs. R.D. Lowry Remains Busy With Special Sewing Hobby

BY LORENA MILLER

An unusual hobby of making throw pillows from cast off ribbons and old ties is a hobby which keeps Mrs. R. D. Lowry active and young at the age of 79.

Mrs. Lowry originated the idea for making the novel pillow tops in 1928 when she had an ample supply of old neckties that had been worn by her husband, the late R. D. Lowry, and her sons.

The rainbow hued pillows are often made by Mrs. Lowry as gifts for her friends. She prefers to make the pillows in a round shape even though they may be made in a square or rectangular pattern.

For the base, she cuts a circle of heavy white cloth and cold starches it. She then cuts the neckties and ribbons, into squares, folds each square twice and applies to the cloth base with her sewing machine. She begins the circular row at the outside edge and then deletes one petal from each circle until she reaches the center.

"I just put petals on the base until I think that it is time to stop," said Mrs. Lowry. She then completes the center with a circle of satin or velvet that may be trimmed with initials, embroidery or cloth flowers.

Another hobby of Mrs. Lowry is the making of hooked rugs from old hose, silk underwear, and other scraps of good cloth. Mrs. Lowry makes the design for the rug on cardboard and assembles the rug with a special hook that was made by her late husband from an ice pick, she prefers it to ready-made hooks.

Before her husband died in 1953, Mrs. Lowry counted that she had made more than 80 rugs. Some adorn her own home but the largest percentage of the rugs have been given to her married children, grandchildren and other friends.

Her favorite design for rugs is redbirds, because of pet redbirds the Lowrys raised from babies after the mother bird had died during a severe rainstorm.

"We had to seek a permit from the state in order to raise the wild birds in our home," Mrs. Lowry reminisced. The pet birds and their lives are depicted in a large rug that Mrs. Lowry made to cover her piano bench.

"Back in the pioneer days," she continued, "when we wanted a rug, we couldn't always run to the store and purchase one. So we made them from whatever materials we had on hand."

Born in the Ozark Mountains of Arkansas in 1884, Mrs. Lowry was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Seay. The Seay family moved to Texas when Rosa Bell (Mrs. Lowry) was ten years old and settled at Needville, near Houston "when Houston was only a village".

"I ran a string of traps, very tomboyish, and practically kept our table supplied with quail and rabbits that I caught," she says. "I had a greyhound, Queen, who could run down almost anything. My pony and I just couldn't catch Queen when she got on a rabbit chase."

At the age of 16, Mrs. Lowry was engulfed in the terror of a hurricane that struck Galveston and the coastal area leaving more than 6,000 dead. The tragic night, September 8, 1900, was recalled by Mrs. Lowry as she sat in her modest Canyon home this week.

"Our family was unharmed by the storm but everything that we owned was destroyed. Several of our neighbors were killed and nearly all homes in the community were destroyed," she recalled. "About a week later our family moved to Central Texas."

The Seay family returned to Fort Bend County in the early spring of 1902. In October 1902, she became the bride of Robert Devon Lowry. The young couple travelled a lot during their early days of marriage.

"When we married, my husband was just a cowboy. He didn't have anything but his horse, a saddle and two cows. That's when I made my first rug, to fix up our little house in Central Texas," she stated.

They spent a year in Texarkana, where Mr. Lowry attended medical school, then moved to Arkansas for a short while. They returned to Central Texas and farmed for several years.

Then in 1909, they loaded their children and household belongings into a wagon and drove to Dora, New Mexico, intending to homestead a piece of grassland.

Mrs. Lowry pointed out, "I had four babies, the oldest one was five years old, and we travelled over 800 miles in that wagon. During three days of the trip we didn't see a living soul—only thousands of cattle and antelope."

The Lowrys stayed in New Mexico only two weeks after the long trip. They discovered, as many homesteaders did, that the head of the household would need a job to support his family while he established his claim.

"We went out there, and we found out how it was, so we turned around and came back," she said. They returned to the Texas Panhandle when "Amarillo was only a burg," she noted.

The Lowrys went to Miami where they farmed wheat for 16 years. Proud that her husband only had one crop failure during the 16 years, Mrs. Lowry also speaks with pride of her daughter, Daisy, who was the first representative from Miami schools to enter the Interscholastic League meets at West Texas State University in Canyon.

Influenced by a wish to put their children through college, the Lowrys moved to Canyon in 1921. Canyon, at that time, was "just a little bit of paving down by the square" Mrs. Lowry recalls.

All of the Lowry children went to West Texas State University where each earned the bachelor and master's degree. Indirectly, Mrs. Lowry has given the Texas school system more than 100 years of teaching service as she is the mother or mother-in-law of seven Texas school teachers.

Lowry children in the teaching profession in Texas are Mr. and Mrs. O. Dee Lowry, Nederland schools; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Lowry, Lubbock schools; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hale, Plainview schools; and Mrs. Glen Phillips, Darrouzett school. Another daughter, Mrs. L. E. Livingston teaches in Hamburg, Ohio.

An early day member of the mother-in-Law Club in Canyon, Mrs. Lowry served as president of the group for five years. During her presidency, club members voted to adopt Boys Ranch as a project. At that time, Cal Farley had only 92 boys at the ranch.

"We sent dishes, combs, clothes, toothbrushes, and I can't remember what all to the youngsters," said Mrs. Lowry. A lover of music, Mrs. Lowry initiated plans for the club to buy a radio for the boys. Cal Farley noted that it was the first radio that Boys Ranch had, according to Mrs. Lowry.

In memory of their son, Earl, who died of appendicitis during his youth, the Lowrys were staunch supporters of Boys Ranch with a Christmas donation each year.

Mrs. Lowry, who will be 80 on her next birthday, has spent more time making quilts recently than pillows and rugs. She has made several quilts in recent years for her children and grandchildren. In addition, she works in the Murray Bible Class at the First Methodist Church and is active in the Mother-in-Law, Pioneer, and sewing clubs of Canyon.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arlen Ruthart in Plainview last Thursday were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ruthart, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Waters.

Also visiting in the Ratliff home were Mrs. Carl Hull and Viola and Winnie Carol Boyd, all of Spearman. Mrs. Ratliff is a daughter of Mrs. Hull.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cunningham travelled to Seminole over the holidays for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Powell.

They also visited with the R. L. Follis family in Hobbs, New Mexico to attend the wedding of their daughter, Carla Sue Follis, before returning to Canyon.

Two Attend Methodist Conference

Rev. Charles Hastings, director of the Methodist Student Center at West Texas State University and Miss Sharon Vance, a junior student from Panhandle, attended the State Conference for Texas Methodist students at McMurry College in Abilene last week end.

Miss Vance, vice president of the council and chairman of the World Christian Community division, conducted a pledge service during the three day conference.

Worship programs for the conference were under the direction of Rev. Charles Hastings of Canyon.

The need for church renewal was the general theme for the conference speakers and John Deschner, associate professor of theology at Southern Methodist University, was the main speaker for the conference. A staunch supporter of the student movement, Deschner has served in many capacities of the group since 1946. During a recent year in Germany, he delivered a series of lectures for the German students in East Berlin.

Mrs. Lesley Holman Auxiliary Hostess

A statement of income care for veterans will be enclosed in the November check going to all veterans, veterans' widows and children, according to Roland Black, assistant Veterans County Service officer.

"If people receiving veterans pension will come by the Chamber of Commerce office in Canyon I will be glad to help fill out their forms," Black said.
